

Employer Alert: CDC Releases New Quarantine and Isolation Calculator

04/06/22

The CDC has released a new tool, the Quarantine and Isolation calculator. This web-based application can provide individuals with the recommended precautions to take in an effort to reduce the spread of COVID-19. The new tool can be tailored to an individual's specific circumstances. The individual can enter factual information and the calculator will advise regarding isolating, quarantining, testing, and wearing a mask based upon the most up-to-date CDC guidance.

If you have questions regarding the CDC guidelines for COVID-19 in the workplace or any other employment laws, contact Tracy Armstrong or another member of the Wilentz Employment Law Team.
